3. Acceptance of Terms

These Terms apply to all users of the Kita platform and incorporate our Privacy Policy and Acceptable Use Policy.

Schools using Kita will typically have a separate service agreement. In case of conflict, the service agreement takes precedence.

4. Access to Kita

4.1 Account Creation

- Teachers create accounts using their school email address (optional)
- Students access Kita through teacher-created accounts
- You must provide accurate information and keep credentials secure
- You are responsible for all activity under your account

4.2 Service Availability

Kita is provided free of charge during the pilot phase. We may introduce paid plans in future.

We do not guarantee uninterrupted access. The platform may be unavailable due to:

- Scheduled maintenance
- Technical issues

- Circumstances beyond our control

We may suspend, modify, or discontinue any part of Kita at any time with reasonable notice to schools.

4.3 Technical Requirements

Users are responsible for:

- Having internet access and compatible devices
- Using supported web browsers
- Ensuring compliance with their school's IT policies

5. Acceptable Use

5.1 Permitted Use

Kita is designed for educational purposes in computing and coding education. Users may:

- Create and edit code within the platform
- Collaborate with classmates in real-time
- Receive AI-generated feedback on their work
- Access lessons and materials provided by their teacher

5.2 Prohibited Conduct

Users must NOT:

- Use offensive, discriminatory, or inappropriate language
- Engage in bullying, harassment, or threatening behavior
- Share personal information (names, addresses, contact details) in code or responses
- Attempt to access other users' accounts or work without permission
- Introduce viruses, malware, or malicious code
- Attempt to hack, disrupt, or damage the platform
- Use the platform for commercial purposes without authorization
- Violate any applicable laws or regulations
- Share account credentials with unauthorized users

5.3 Consequences of Violations

Violations of these Terms may result in:

- Warning from teacher or Kita team
- Temporary or permanent suspension of account
- Removal of content
- Notification to school authorities
- Legal action if appropriate

6. Intellectual Property

6.1 Kita Intellectual Property

Kita owns all intellectual property rights in:

- The Kita platform and its features
- Platform design, graphics, and user interface

- Kita branding and logos
- Documentation and materials created by Kita

These rights are protected by copyright, trademark, and other intellectual property laws.

6.2 User-Generated Content

Students own the code and work they create in Kita.

By using Kita, users grant us a limited license to:

- Store and display user work within the platform
- Process work to provide AI feedback
- Use anonymized work for research and platform improvement

We will never sell or publicly share student work without explicit consent.

6.3 Third-Party Content

Teachers may upload or link to third-party materials. Teachers are responsible for ensuring they have appropriate rights to use such materials.

7. AI-Generated Feedback

Kita uses AI to provide feedback on student code. Users should understand:

- AI feedback is advisory only; teachers retain final authority
- AI may occasionally provide incorrect or incomplete suggestions
- Teachers can disable AI features at course or school level
- Student data is never used to train AI models
- AI systems are ring-fenced and restricted to platform use only
- Kita does not use AI to make automated decisions about students; all feedback is advisory and subject to teacher oversight.

8. Privacy and Data Protection

Our Privacy Policy explains how we handle personal data. Key points:

- Schools are Data Controllers for student data
- Kita is a Data Processor acting on school instructions
- We collect minimal student data
- Student data is never sold or used for marketing

By using Kita, you consent to data processing as described in the Privacy Policy.

9. Limitation of Liability

9.1 Service Provision

Kita is provided "as is" without warranties of any kind. We do not guarantee:

- Uninterrupted or error-free service
- Accuracy of AI-generated feedback
- Compatibility with all devices or browsers
- Freedom from bugs or technical issues

9.2 Exclusions and Limitations

Nothing in these Terms excludes liability for:

- Death or personal injury from negligence
- Fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation
- Any liability that cannot be excluded under English law

Subject to the above, we are not liable for:

- Loss of data or work due to technical issues
- Indirect or consequential losses
- Loss of profits, business, or revenue
- Damage from viruses or malicious code
- Actions of other users

9.3 User Responsibility

Users are responsible for:

- Backing up important work
- Using appropriate virus protection
- Complying with school policies
- Their own conduct on the platform

10. Changes to Terms

We may update these Terms from time to time. Changes will be posted on our website, and schools will be notified of significant changes.

Continued use of Kita after changes constitutes acceptance of the updated Terms.

11. Termination

Schools may terminate their use of Kita at any time by notifying us.

We may suspend or terminate access if:

- These Terms are violated
- Account activity appears suspicious or fraudulent
- We discontinue the service

Upon termination, access to user work will be provided as agreed with the school.

Following termination, student data will be deleted or returned to the school in accordance with the Privacy Policy and the school's instructions.

12. Third-Party Links and Services

Kita may contain links to third-party websites or integrate with third-party services (e.g., Google Classroom). We are not responsible for the content or practices of third parties.

13. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

These Terms are governed by English law.

For consumers: Courts of England and Wales have non-exclusive jurisdiction. Residents of Northern Ireland may bring proceedings in Northern Ireland; residents of Scotland may bring proceedings in Scotland.

For businesses: Courts of England and Wales have exclusive jurisdiction.
